

Homes PTO Exec Board Zoom Meeting
Friday, January 22, 2021, 9:45am

Treasurer report: Update from Isa

- $3,000 positive as of Dec. We have not used our reserves, but plan to as we launch more online events in the new year.

Outfitters: Update from Cameron

- Discussed having Spring Sale online with a few warm-weather items.

Fundraising

- Hands in Pottery for Valentines Day Project - Link is live. $27 - will we have a gallery on line with - purchase by Feb. 4th. Payment over the phone. Delivery of items is an option.
- Butcher Shop for Community Dinner on February 27th - Put together a menu & gluten free options. Order on A to Z. Looking at delivery options. Cost of $85 and about $20 will go back to the schools. SAVE the DATE - will be sent out in H2H.

International Cultures Committee Update:

- Book Club & Cooking with Marine Devillers on January 29th
- Feb. 3rd Book Club and art project.
- Would like to collect names for next year on families that would be interested in demonstrating cooking.

Special Discussion on Community Events

- Trivia night: hiring a third-party company (Rock, Papers & Scissors). Costs is $800 for two sessions – Approved by board
- Yoga 2/26 for families & kids. 2 sessions: K-2, 3-5

Vice Chair report/update: Angela

- End of Feb. to room parents for teacher end-of-year gifts. Requesting VENMO instead of cash/check
- Contact the room parents to remind or ask teachers to take pictures for yearbook.

Special Discussion on Recruiting Volunteers for:

- Website maintenance & update – Renata Hopkins to remain on team, needs 2-4 additional team members
- Social Events Committee` for adult only events - 4 or 5 volunteers
- Little Buds Garden – 1 volunteer
- Upcoming PTO slates for 2021-22 and how to recruit?
- Fundraising – 2/3 volunteers

Enrichment: Update from Caitlin & Caitlin

- Potential art and/or science
- 2 more author visits

Current Happenings

- Valentine's Day teacher treats 2/11
- Book Fair- Starts March 8th
- Yearbook - will look different this year. Reminders sent out to room parents asking teachers to help with pictures.
- Fifth Grade Celebrations - put in touch with other schools to get ideas